SEVENTY-THIRD AUCTION SALE.

BOSTON :

T. R. MARVIN & SON, NUMISMATIC PRINTERS.

1887.

AMERICAN COIN SCALE.

TO COLLECTORS.

MANY years ago, Mr. JONAS ETTINGER, then an active perambulating dealer in Bibles, Books, Clocks, etc., conceived the idea of making a Collection of old Coins and Curiosities, and for a period of over twenty-five years faithfully adhered to his project, constantly adding to his increasing hoard, until the time came when he gave up his business, and settled among the hills of Northampton Co., Pennsylvania, where he still lives, at an advanced age, a prosperous farmer, surrounded by a large family of sons, daughters, and grandchildren.

While it is true that Mr. Ettinger bought a number of his rarer coins at auction sales, still the great body of his collection, from which hundreds of pieces not sufficiently valuable to be offered at auction have been culled, was gathered by him, piece by piece, in his numerous expeditions in Pennsylvania, Maryland and Delaware, hence this may properly be regarded as a REPRESENTATIVE AMERICAN COLLECTION, exemplifying just how much, or rather how little, could be achieved in years past by the unaided efforts of the local American Collector.

On this ground alone the Collection would possess great interest, but as the compiler has been able to add, from a private cabinet, rare MEDALS OF THE REBELLION PERIOD, FINE CENTS of early dates, a small but interesting NUMISMATIC LIBRARY, INDIAN IMPLEMENTS, also random selections from the AARON WHITE hoard, etc., the aggregate, it is hoped, will be found sufficiently important and interesting to commend itself to the attention of both COLLECTORS AND DEALERS, who are respectfully invited to be present in person, or to send their orders in good time for the sale.

 Of great rarity, and ought to command a high price.

The rarity of the above elaborate Official Envelopes is well known. On the introduction of Postage Stamps, the officials feared their whole-sale forgery; and with reference to this dread the London Daily News, September 8, 1881, thus speaks: "Possibly this unreasonable dread may have been at the bottom of the famed Mulready envelopes, the beautiful but much too elaborate design of which afforded to the wits of 1840 such abundant opportunities for satire. They have now become very scarce; for the lampoons and caricatures daunted the authorities, and the highly artistic but wholly inappropriate vehicle for business communication was withdrawn. The scarcity is sufficiently explained by the fact that all the vast stock prepared for issue was destroyed at the time. A Machine was constructed expressly for the work of destruction as related in Sir Rowland Hill's Memoirs." These envelopes have been known to bring very high prices, and are constantly in great demand. As far as I know, these are the first entire sheets offered at auction here.

The DEPARTMENT of ANCIENT and MODERN COINS, MEDALS, POSTAGE STAMPS, ANTIQUITIES, BRIC-A-BRAC, etc., is under the charge of Mr. ED. FROSSARD, the well-known Numismatist, who will Catalogue for Special Auction Sales, Consignments or Collections, large or small.

COLLECTIONS APPRAISED; CASH ADVANCES MADE.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Many changes have lately taken place among Coin Dealers, and it is probable that several who have heretofore received bids for my sales will not, in the future, attend to this branch of their former business.

Considering the fact that I am constantly engaged in cataloguing important Collections, that the properties offered are not my own, as is generally the case with most dealers, but really belong to bona fide owners, may I ask collectors who desire to be served regularly with my Catalogues, and who wish to be represented at my sales, to favor me with their correspondence and bids? If so, they are assured of prompt attention, careful purchases at satisfactory prices, and in general an intelligent service.

My terms are: For purchases up to $25, 10 per cent: for purchases in excess of $25, 5 per cent. I attend to all New York Coin sales at the same rates as for my own.
